Theresa is part of Wiersholm's TMT team. She works with technology and digitalization and contract law. She regularly advises clients within industries such as technology, pharmacy, finance and media in negotiations and dispute resolution. She has been leased to one of the leading IT companies in the Nordic region where she has assisted in tenders, negotiations and other issues related to IT contracts. Theresa is ranked as one of Norway's ten best lawyers within technology and digitalization. In the past few years, she has also been ranked as no. 1 "Up&Coming" lawyer in the same category. For several years, she has also been ranked as "Next Generation Lawyer" and "Rising Star" by the acknowledged, international ranking firm Legal 500.

> Theresa is a really talented lawyer who knows her stuff and is a good person to have in negotiations. She is commercially good, knows the business and is quick to learn new things.
